WS® BATH COLLECTIONS

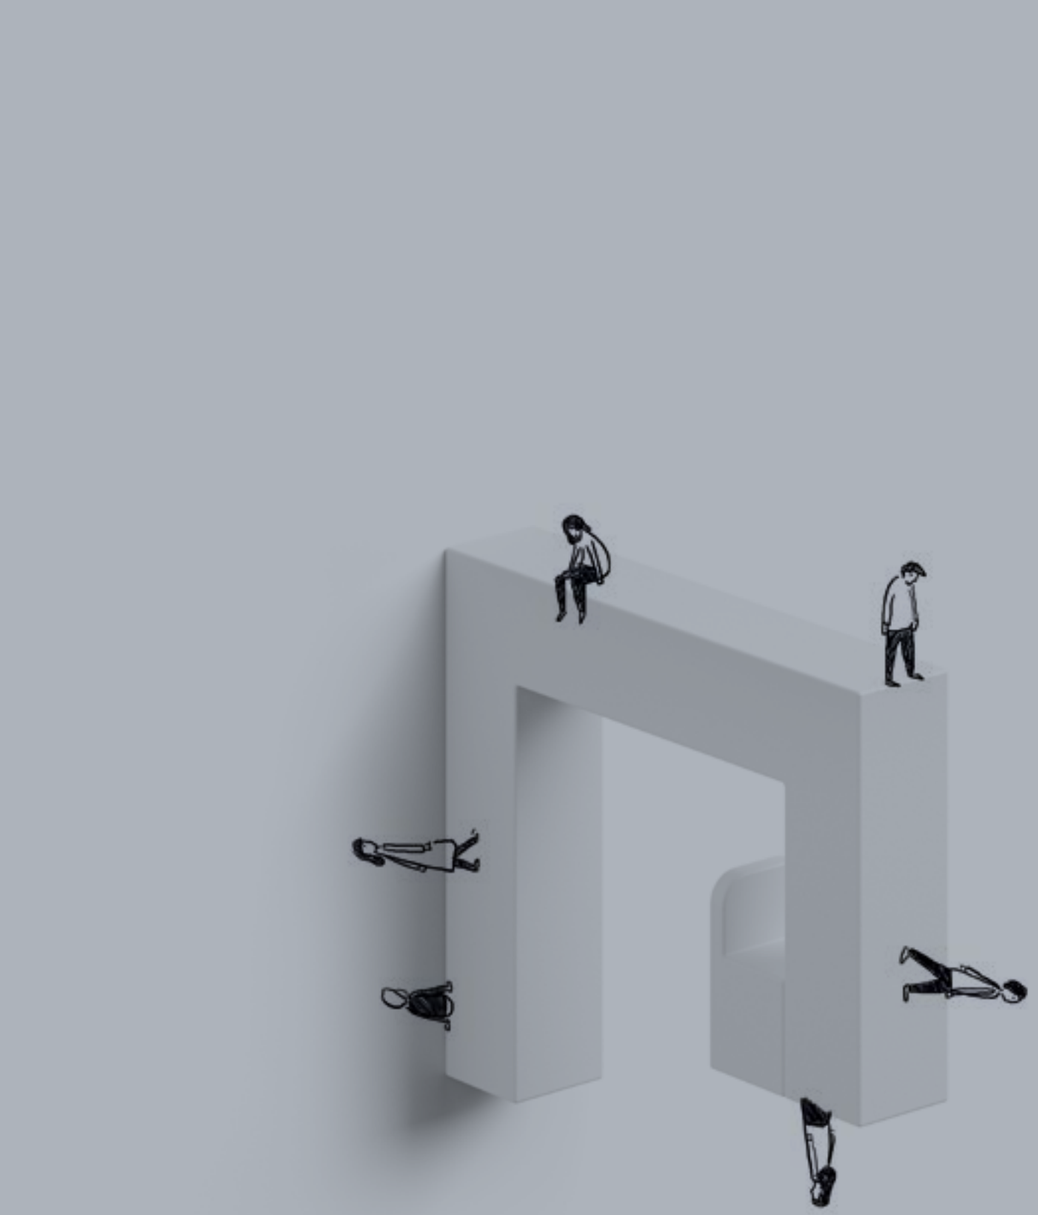

Everyday design

The modern housing solutions are no longer responsive to the squared and vaguely functional logics common in the past decades: in an intelligent and changing process, the bathroom, lost the classic iconography of a private room and is now influenced by multiple variables.

Such as medical clinics, where in the past the logics of cost and easy cleaning prevailed aesthetics, are now going to be transformed with the introduction of a design culture and are blended in a place that, while remaining practical, ensures well-being to the patient until the complete recovery.

Even urban and public spaces no longer have a clear distinction: cafés become offices, the mall is replacing the square, the boutique integrates a library. The only fixed point around which this kaleidoscope rotates is the private place of our humble needs.
